TOUR: QUEST

Thu 19 – Sun 29 Oct 2023
11 Days/10 Nights

Our Quest Tour, hosted by Adam Ashley-Cooper, includes the semi-finals and final of Rugby World Cup France 2023. Mid-week we spend four incredible days and nights in Biarritz and Bordeaux before returning to Paris for the final.

The luxurious seaside town of Biarritz became a destination for Europe's rich and famous in the 19th century. While Bordeaux is a cultural and culinary force of nature surrounded by some of France's top wineries, à votre santé!

ADAM ASHLEY-COOPER

Adam earned 121 international caps for Australia including playing at the 2007, 2011, 2015 and 2019 tournaments. In Super Rugby Adam played for the Brumbies and Waratahs before joining Bordeaux in France for several seasons. Most recently he won a Major League Rugby title with the LA Giltinis.

Sun 22 Oct: Biarritz

This morning we head to the Bay of Biscay and the playground of France's rich and famous - Biarritz! The luxurious seaside tourist town of Biarritz was largely known mainly as a fishing and whaling town until it became the it destination for European royalty in the 19th century. After checking-in we head down to the beachfront promenade to soak in the sea breeze at one of town's best open air cafes.

Overnight: Biarritz

Mon 23 Oct: Transfer to Bordeaux

After a relaxed morning, we depart for three nights in Bordeaux. Surrounded by hillsides of vineyards and castles, Bordeaux has long stood at the crossroads of European civilization. In the Middle Ages the city's harbour became known as Port de la Lune thanks to its crescent shape and Bordeaux was once Europe's second busiest port after London. We will visit the modern Cite du Vin wine museum on our city tour and sample the best of the local produce!

Overnight: Bordeaux

Tue 24 Oct: Bordeaux City Tour

Boasting some of France's boldest architecture and public spaces Bordeaux is a delight. From the incredible Place de la Bourse to bustling Sainte Catherine Street and the UNESCO-listed Saint Andre Cathedral, the city is spectacular!
